Age 8 upwards

In the Library of Secrets, a dusty old book tells the tale of scientific pioneers making discoveries in the Dark Ages. Jim Al-Khalili and Andrea Sella reproduce some of the earliest and most mysterious of these chemical experiments, bringing them BANG up to date! Let them take you on a journey back in time, and crack open the shadowy story of a man who took chemistry to the next level. This event will contain a showing of the short film 'The Library of Secrets' starring Sir Ben Kingsley.

Children under 12 must be accompanied by a responsible person aged 16 and over.
For further information please see our family policy.
