

Sheikha Mozah opens the exhibition "Roots Arabick in London

News , Qatar June 15th, 2011

In London, the Sheikha Mozah participated in the roundtable "Ways Leading to a Knowledge-based Economy". After this, the wife of the Emir of Qatar and the British Minister for Culture Ed Vaize inaugurated the exhibition "Arabick Roots" which traces the history of great scientific discoveries both Arab and Western especially on the influence of each other. Rare books, scientific instruments and correspondence showing how Islamic culture has influenced people like Edmund Halley and Robert Boyle, are shown to the public. The exhibition is open until November 2011 in London and will be transferred to Doha, Qatar. ( Thanks to Guizmo - Copyright photos: QNA )

